

Scorecard on Business Integrity

- Am I leading by example when it comes to business integrity?
- Are my business principles, especially related to integrity, well understood by everyone I work with?
- Am I consistently transparent with my customers, partners, and employees?
- Do I follow through on every commitment I make, both big and small?
- Do I approach all business relationships with fairness, without showing favoritism or bias?
- Am I quick to admit when I've made a mistake or when things go wrong?
- How do I ensure that my business operations comply with legal and ethical standards?
- Do my employees, customers, and partners feel they can rely on me to act with integrity?
- How do I demonstrate accountability in my day-to-day business operations?
- Do I regularly evaluate my business practices to ensure they align with my core values of integrity?
- Am I open about my business practices, especially when things don't go as planned?
- Have I built a culture that encourages ethical behavior at every level of my organization?
- Do I make decisions based on what's ethically right, even if it's not the most profitable or easiest option?
- How am I promoting fairness and equity in my business dealings with employees and customers?
- Do I have a clear process for dealing with ethical challenges, and am I confident in making decisions that reflect my commitment to integrity?

